"JOIN YOURSELF AND GET ANOTHER," LEGION SLOGAN

Plans Completed by Bishop Post to Boost Membership to 450.

TEN TEAMS ARE FORMING

Captains Will Select Workers for Drive to Be Started January 23 and Continue for Five Days; Post Wants to Hold All Who Are Enrolled.

Plans for the intensive membership campaign to be carried on by the Milton LaFayette Bishop Post No. 301, The American Legion, during the period between January 23-28 were completed Monday night at a meeting of the drive committee, named a week ago by the executive committee. It is expected that at least a total membership of 450, the goal, will be attained and possibly more.

The team captains, 10 in number, will be permitted to select their own workers at the regular meeting of the Legion on Thursday evening. It is expected each man will select a complete squad of canvassers. The local post had a membership of half a thousand a few years ago but it has been allowed to dwindle. This time efforts will be made to hold all who enroll. The campaign motto will be: "Join Yourself and Get Another One."

Any person who has served in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps during the period from April 6, 1917, to November 11, 1918, and who holds an honorable discharge from the service, is eligible for membership.

The Legion plans to enroll as many as possible of all former soldiers in Connellsville. It is felt that ex-service men should want to belong to a live organization like the Bishop post and little trouble in securing their memberships is anticipated.

The material for the drive will be given to the team captains and they in turn will care for their workers. There will be no lagging in the work as members of the four losing teams will banquet the six leading outfits at the close of the campaign.

The captains will meet with their workers in the Legion rooms next Monday night to check over the results of the first day's work. These daily meetings will tend to liven interest in the campaign, it is believed, and it is anticipated enough members will be secured to give the local organization state-wide prominence.

GARBAGE FURNACE MUST BE REPAIRED COUNCIL IS TOLD

The garbage question came up before council again last night. It was fully reviewed by Councilman James Wardley in the report of his department, the parks and public properties.

Councilman James Wardley gave some data on the garbage question which indicated he had been working actively as the head of the department of parks and public buildings. He said the furnace now in use was badly in need of repairs and in all fairness to the persons living in the vicinity of it, the work should be done at once. He also told council the lease on the property had run out and he was given authority to renew it. Mr. Wardley told of visiting Braddock and witnessing the garbage plant there in operation. He said it was run in connection with the waterworks almost in the heart of the city, and that there was no odor whatever. The cost of the furnace and various other work in its installation was about $13,500, he said. He had also inquired of the United States government as to the best method of garbage disposal, he said. He recommended that the local furnace be re-lined and re-arched. "It is in a very dilapidated condition," he said, "and needs immediate attention."

Regarding a janitor for the city hall, Mr. Wardley said he had not gone deeply into the subject because of the shortage of funds in the budget. The names of several applicants were read last night but no action was taken. The matter will come up again after the budget has been submitted. Those making written application for the job include George T. Rist, Harrison Hund, Frank R. Lowden, Henry Richter, George G. Percy, David Wormack and Grover Hutton. City Clerk Mason said about 15 had been in personally to inquire about the job.

Warrants for Tax Evaders.

Warrants have been placed in the hands of an officer and arrests of persons who have not paid their taxes are being made. About a dozen arrests have already been made but it has not yet been necessary to commit anyone to the county jail at Uniontown yet. After being placed in the local jail they have always paid their taxes, together with the costs of the services of the officer.

Sentenced to Reformatory.

Charles Augustine, Samuel Ellsworth and Andrew Carroll, charged with breaking and entering the Ellottsville postoffice and general store, were sentenced to Huntingdon by the court in Uniontown today. The trio were prosecuted by Charles Gleason, postmaster and proprietor of the store. When arrested the men were wearing hose they had stolen.

Former Presto Coal Head Contests Court Sentence; Is Given Longer Term

Four Months in Workhouse Added to That Given W. D. O'Donnell.

FINE ALSO IS IMPOSED

Dissatisfied with life in the Western Penitentiary, to which he had been sentenced for false pretense in connection with alleged looting of borrowers of $200,000 through the promotion of the Presto Coal Company, W. D. O'Donnell, president of the concern, appealed to the Superior Court for cancellation of the sentence on the grounds that the court had erred in committing him to the penitentiary; that he should have been sentenced to the workhouse. The Superior Court ordered the case remanded to the Fayette county court for re-sentence.

O'Donnell was called before Judge S. H. Reppert at the weekly session this morning. Judge Reppert not only added four months to the original sentence but ordered that O'Donnell pay the fine of $500 originally imposed. The court also called attention to the fact that the defendant had been convicted on 13 additional counts but that these had not been pressed by the district attorney and that sentence could have been imposed on each count had the court been so inclined.

O'Donnell was brought from the penitentiary to Uniontown a week ago and had since been awaiting re-sentence in the county jail. He will be taken to the workhouse.

O'Donnell's operations were centered in Fayette county where he promoted an alleged swindle relative to coal development near Ohiopyle.

BURGESS OVERHOLT JOINS YOUNG FOLKS COASTING ON STREETS

Special to The Courier.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Jan. 17—After issuing an order restricting coasting to three streets—parts of Washington, Diamond and Church—Burgess William M. Overholt last evening assisted the boys and girls and some grownups in having a good time. Following the thaw during the day and subsequent freezing the streets were in excellent condition and hundreds of coasters were out. The burgess himself had a sled. He did not overlook safety precautions. Red lights were placed, also signs to warn automobilists to observe caution at crossings. There were no mishaps.

APPEAL IN BEHALF OF PLAYGROUNDS IS MADE TO COUNCIL

Tentative Appropriation of $500; Nearly Double Amount Is Asked.

OTHER MEANS PLANNED

Council cleared away considerable business last night and still has not gone into the budget question thoroughly nor the matter of the election of a street commissioner. Nor was anything done on the appointment of a city detective.

The attitude of the new council in regard to finances was clearly shown when Mrs. Howard Myers, as chairman of the playgrounds committee of the Woman's Culture Club appeared before the body and requested an appropriation. Asked the amount she desired, she pointed out that last year council had given the equipment which amounted to practically $900. She asked for the same sum this year.

Councilman C. M. Stone, superintendent of accounts and finance, said that while he wanted to do all possible to aid the playgrounds, he knew it would not be possible to give so much money. He said he was having difficulty in keeping the budget within the limit. Mrs. Myers said that during last year there was a total attendance at the grounds of 28,461 children, or an average daily attendance of 475. During the time the playgrounds were operating, she said, only one boy was taken into police court. She asked whether that did not prove the playgrounds to be a worthy cause.

Councilman Stone said there was no doubt but that the cause was worthy but he asked if it would be right to pare off some employe's salary to secure the money for the appropriation. He said the playgrounds were "down for $500" but that whether that sum would be given was up to the entire councilmanic body. He said that as a director of the Connellsville Baseball Club he had a proposition in mind which might raise money for the playgrounds, but yet had to submit it to other members of the organization. Mrs. Myers said that a fund of $600 was available for starting the 1922 playgrounds. The expenses last year were about $3,700, she said. Permission to hold a tag day in the future, the proceeds to go to the playgrounds, was given.

Council also passed a resolution authorizing the city solicitor to draw up an ordinance for the vacation of an unnamed alley between Sycamore street, near Patterson avenue, running east to an unnamed alley in the rear. Petition for this action had been placed before the council at a previous meeting.

Another resolution passed authorized the superintendent of accounts and finance to draw sufficient funds from the general funds to pay salaries and bills for the first half of January. This action was necessary as the 1922 budget has not yet been approved and the balance from 1921 has been placed with 1922 funds.

A petition was read by City Clerk Harry G. Mason in which council was asked to give V. Bert Ritchie, a patrolman, consideration in the appointment of a city detective. It was signed by 30 persons.

The old town clock came up for discussion. Every member was in accord in the desire to have the clock either operating or removed. The subject was brought up by Councilman Stone, who said he had been approached by L. W. Carpenter, a North Pittsburg street jeweler. Mr. Carpenter asked permission to move the clock, now in front of the Title & Trust bank entrance, north on the street to a position in front of his store. It allowed to place his advertisement on it he said he would keep the timepiece in repair. Councilman Berg was appointed to see persons who had raised funds for the purchase of the clock, and securing their permission to notify the jeweler he could change the location of the clock.

Mention was made of the heavy chains used on big trucks to keep them from skidding. These and badly worn tires are hard on the street, it

Court Sentences Negro Gunman to Serve 18 Months

Clarence Waldren, colored, "walking a beat" arrested a few weeks ago by the Baltimore & Ohio police here, was sentenced to serve 18 months in the workhouse and pay a fine of $300 by the court in Uniontown today.

Waldren carried a .45 Colt automatic, loaded with eight shells, two extra cartridge clips filled, 105 extra bullets, a handybilly made of a brass door knob, a bayonet in a seabbard, a flash light and cayenne pepper. He told the court he carried the pepper with him because he liked it in his vegetables.

William J. Semans and Mike Hrokowitz, two youths arrested on the same day as Waldren, charged with breaking and entering the store of C. W. Echock at Poplar Grove where they stole various articles, were also sentenced to serve 18 months in the workhouse. The Baltimore & Ohio officers caught the pair as they were crawling on the head end of a passenger train to make their getaway.

Bodies of Executed Sent Home Minus Cap And Hangman's Rope

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17. Former service men detailed for duty with the American Grave Registration Service in France, denied before a Senate committee today that the bodies of soldiers ognity put to death in France were buried with a club of rope around the neck and the black cap which had been placed on them on the gallows.

George Bamford of Washington and John Flynn of Cambridge, Mass., both testified they had heard of nothing to substantiate such charges. Flynn declared that Rufus Hubbard of New York, who had testified that he saw bodies with rope and cap intact, was a "trouble maker."

Disagreeing with witnesses who preceded him, Richard Sullivan of Somerville, Mass., an assistant embalmer with the Grave Registration Service, declared he saw two bodies taken up with rope and black cap intact.

Edwin Louis of Hartford, Conn., a lieutenant colonel with the Expeditionary Forces, was called.

"Did you witness any executions in France?"

"Yes, two at Bacolles. Both were court martialed," he said.

"Did the men claim they had not been tried?"

"No, sir."

"Neither protested his innocence?"

"No. In the case of the second man hanged I think the body was placed quickly in the coffin with the rope and cap still on it."

Rufus Hubbard who recently testified that many bodies were sent home home without proper identification was described by Major Samuel Hefner of West Point as a civilian employe "who was the worst trouble maker in the section." He agreed with Hubbard, however, that a rope and a black cap were found on two bodies dug up at Bacolles.

"The body of only one of the men hanged was shipped to the United States and the rope and the cap were removed," the witness declared.

SEVERE EARTH TREMOR DURING NIGHT IS FELT

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—An earthquake described "very severe" and estimated to have been at a distance of 3,500 miles south of Washington was recorded on the seismograph at Georgetown University beginning at 10:58 P. M. yesterday and continuing until 1 A. M. today.

The period of greatest intensity was recorded eight minutes after the disturbance began.

Western Maryland Moving Freights Every Two Hours

DICKERSON RUN, Jan. 17. The Western Maryland railroad is running freight trains every two hours on account of the increase in freight traffic on the Pittsburg & Lake Erie railroad. In addition to the regular traffic there will be 1,500 cars of grain shipped over the Pittsburg & Lake Erie this week.

TWO GRANTED DIVORCES

Local Woman Freed From Husband on Grounds of Desertion.

Among divorces granted in court at Uniontown today were decrees freeing G. A. Lynch from Mildred Lynch on grounds of cruelty, and Ida A. Franks from Thomas Franks on charges of desertion. The former couple resided in Uniontown. They were married November 26, 1917 at Oakland, Md.

Mrs. Franks, who resides in Connellsville, said her husband had left her at least a half dozen times. She also declared he had choked her and thrown her across a chair. Once, she said, he sharpened a razor and said he intended to cut her throat. They were married at Apple Creek, O., on October 14 1892.

North Union High School Girl Killed When Truck She Is Riding Hits Train

Miss Isabel McKittrick Misses Regular School Motor and Flags Driver.

HE ESCAPES UNINJURED

Riding to school on a motor truck after having missed the regular school conveyance, Miss Isabel McKittrick, 15 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McKittrick, well-known residents of North Union township, was killed almost instantly this morning when the truck collided with the fog at Hogsett's cut, a mile north of Uniontown, with a Pennsylvania passenger train bound for Uniontown.

Miss McKittrick had started to walk to Uniontown to get a car for the North Union high school, between Uniontown and Belmont. She had not gone far when the truck driven by Patsy Gismondi and owned by John C. Brownfield, Uniontown grocer, came along and she asked for a ride so as to avoid being late for school.

According to the story told by Gismondi, he did not hear the train and did not see it until he was within 10 feet of the track. He whirled the car about but unfortunately the side on which the girl was riding crashed into the mail car of the train and she was hurled against the train and her chest crushed. She was dragged along for some distance by the train and truck. Gismondi escaped unhurt. The truck was also demolished.

The train backed to the scene of the accident and the body of the girl placed aboard and taken to Uniontown.

BILL PRITTS TO BE LAID TO REST ON WEDNESDAY

Funeral services for William Pritts, better known as "Bill" Pritts, will be held Wednesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wilson Lyons, near Trent. Burial will be in the Tinkey Cemetery, Saltlick township.

The former moonshiner, who in late years had lived a peaceful and retired life and who was said to have united with the church, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hannah Pritts, and nine children, Elizabeth Pritts, near Trent; Mrs. Mary Santmeyer, Washington, D. C.; Samuel, Hiram, Ludwig, James, Harvey, Henry and John Pritts, all of the vicinity of Indian Head, Fayette county.

Largest Audience Of U. B. Revival Out Sunday Night

The United Brethren Church was crowded last evening for the revival services conducted by Evangelist Pat Taylor. It was said some were turned away. The evangelist preached on "Healing in the Atonement." There was one conversion and one "reclaimed." A number of hands were raised in answer to a call for those who wanted prayers for the sick. Mrs. George Santmyer sang.

This evening the sermon subject will be "The Cross." The doors will be open at 6:45. From 7 to 7:30 there will be a prayer service in the Sunday school rooms. From 7:30 to 8 will be given over to a song service.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SURVEY

Made In Number of Districts of County to Increase Efficiency.

District presidents of the Fayette County Sunday School Association are making a systematic survey of schools of their districts with a view to raising the standard and increasing efficiency of instruction, according to J. H. Collins, county secretary. It is noticeable, he says, that the real live districts of the county are those in which regular meetings of district superintendents and other officers are held.

February 25 has been fixed as the tentative date for the annual conference and June 15 and 16 as the dates for the annual county convention.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS HELP LOCAL CLOCK OWNER INDICATES

J. C. Horwick of East Fairview avenue has a "backyard flock" of which he is proud. He submits the following on its composition and laying qualities with a suggestion as to care:

"The flock consists of 26 pullets, 18 two-year-old hens, 28 in all. There are four breeds, white leghorns, Rhode Island white, Rhode Island reds, and barred rocks. They laid as follows: January, 532 eggs, February, 622; March, 691; April, 706; May, 750; June, 632; July, 575; August 524; September, 412; October, 409; November, 7 9; December, 531; total, 6,967; average of 184 per hen.

"I use electric lights and feed a balanced ration at the same hour each day the year round. I find very little difference in the laying qualities of the different breeds if properly fed and cared for."

INSTALLATION OF RADIO STATIONS ACTIVE INDUSTRY

Upwards of 300 in the City and Thousands in the Surrounding Territory.

BROADCASTING PROGRAMS

The installation of radio stations is becoming an active industry in this section. While they include both receiving and transmitting stations the former very much out-number the latter. By those in close touch with the development in progress it is estimated that in Connellsville alone there are upwards of 300, and within a radius of 15 miles there are from 3,000 to 5,000 receiving stations.

While many of the instruments and their equipment have been purchased outright a very large number of amateurs have constructed and installed their own radio devices. In all sections of the city the aerials have been strung from poles or house tops and at regular hours every day or evening the instruments "cut in" to receive the broadcastings from the large stations or from the smaller stations nearer home.

At this time there are three private transmitting stations in the city. One of the most complete, and an entirely home product, is the station Captain T. W. Scott has installed in his home at 120 1-2 Chestnut street. The station has a normal radius of 150 miles and under favorable conditions has communicated with New York and other equally distant points. C. M. Chorpenning, a well-known electrician who was one of the pioneers in wireless, telephony in Connellsville has as complete an installation in his home on Church place. M. E. Cooper will shortly have his station on Eighth street, West Side, ready for operation.

These three stations have made arrangements to establish a regular broadcasting program for each evening of the week. The Chorpenning station, known as 8WK, will put on its part of the program between 7:00 and 7:30. The next 30 minutes will be taken by the Cooper station, 8LVF. Captain Scott's station, 8BJV, will conclude the program, 8:00 to 8:30. This station, which transmits on a wave length of 220 meters, will put on its first program this evening, using records loaned by the Aaron Company as follows:

Fox Trot "Leave Me With a Smile" No. 18,831.

Tenor solo "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling" John McCormack No. 64,195.

Hawaiian duet "Honolulu Honey" Charles Hart and Elliott Shaw No. 18,796.

Fox Trot "Birds of a Feather" All Star Trio No. 18,831.

Xylophone solo "Buffalo Nickel March" William H. Reitz No. 17,357.

Hawaiian duet "Sweet Hawaiian Girl of Mine" Charles Hart and Elliott Shaw No. 18,796.

Measles Case Reported.

A case of measles in Fayette street was reported to the Board of Health this morning.

CONGRESS WILL PASS BONUS AND WAR DEBT BILLS

Hopes to Get Enough From Europe to Begin Paying Soldiers.

MUST AUTHORIZE HARDING

To Negotiate With Debtor Nations Before Can Be Made Available From That Source; President Insists Bonus Proposition Be Settled Right.

By Mark Sullivan

National Politics Correspondent of The Courier and the New York Post.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Congress is going to pass the bonus bill. It is also going to pass the bill giving the President, acting through appointees, the power to arrange terms for the payment of the debts and interests due us from European governments. The two bills are going to have some sort of relation to each other. President Harding is understood to hold that any bonus bill for the soldiers must be in complete good faith and without any camouflaging element that would turn out to be hope still further deferred. What this means is that Harding will probably want the bonus bill to carry a specific appropriation providing the money for the soldiers.

But when Congress faces that necessity it is seriously embarrassed. A sales tax has been suggested, and there are some strong leaders in Congress who have stubborn faith in both the necessity and the desirability of that form of taxation. Nevertheless, any accurate reflection of the present state of feeling about the sales tax would show that it is not as popular now as it was some months ago. It would take hard driving to put a sales tax through the present Congress.

Another suggestion has been made that the sale of drinks with an alcoholic content of three per cent could be authorized and taxed enough to bear the cost of the soldiers' bonus. There is little in that. The sentiment of the present Congress is clearly and overwhelmingly opposed to making prohibition any less rigid than it is.

The soldier bonus could be paid with an issue of short-term government bonds; but those whose primary interest is in the state of the treasury would be seriously disturbed by such an action. The treasury is already uncomfortably embarrassed by the amount of short-term notes now out and soon to come due. What the treasury hopes is that interest rates will continue downward and that it will be possible to refund the government's short-term loans at a lower rate of interest. But if another large issue of government notes is thrown on the market interest rates will stop going downward, and turn upward again. That way of paying the soldier bonus would make us pay it twice—once in the shape of the principal sum and again in the shape of increased interest over a period of years; increased interest not only on the bonus bonds, but on all other government obligations.

What will probably happen is this: The bill for refunding the foreign debts will be passed first and promptly. Thereafter, Congress will hope rather vaguely that somehow or other enough money may be got out of our foreign debtors, directly or indirectly, to make at least a beginning on paying the soldiers' bonus at a date not so far deferred as to be unsatisfactory to the soldiers. There is no doubt that if Congress had not already delayed this refunding bill so long, if it had been passed at the time Harding asked for it, and if our treasury had had six months in which to turn around, we would already have had something in hand, directly or indirectly, with which to make a beginning on paying the soldiers' bonus.

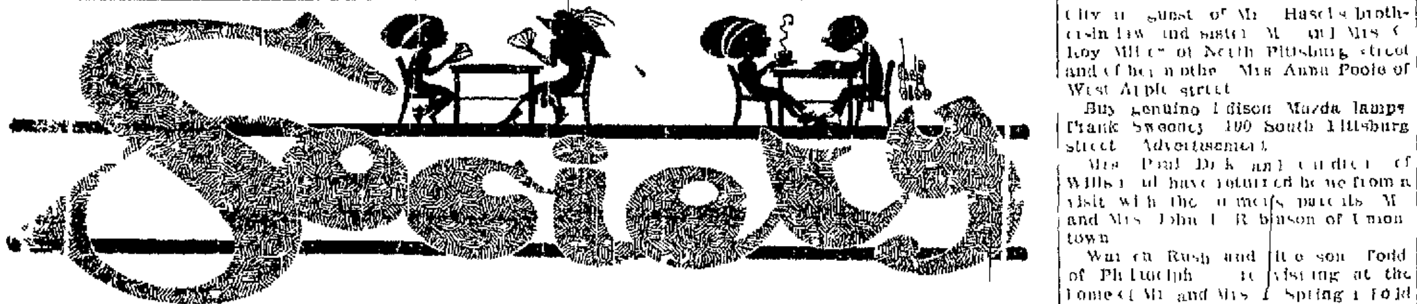

One plan is that as soon as the necessary authority has been given the Administration, Great Britain and perhaps one or two of the other nations half give us her bonds, and that the American government shall sell these bonds to the American public and apply the proceeds towards the soldiers' bonus. This plan contemplates that by this means it would not be necessary for our government to issue more than a quarter of a billion of its own bonds, merely to tide over the period until the money from abroad shall come in in sufficient quantity to take care of the bonus. It should be said however, that this plan is a senatorial one rather than anything else. It is not wholly shared by all who think we should face the soldiers' bonus, payments directly and straightforwardly.

President Harding believes in paying the soldiers' bonus and doing it right. Any others who have had hopes of deferring this issue until the treasury is in better shape have been convinced by the indications of widespread public demand, not only on the part of the soldiers but also on the part of the public generally.

NEWS OF DAY AT SCOTTDALE BRIEFLY TOLD

Woman's Auxiliary of Legion Realizes $75 From Musicale.

FINE PROGRAM PRESENTED

Special to The Courier.

SCOTTDALE, Jan. 17—The benefit musicale given last evening by the Woman's Auxiliary of Thomas A. Llewelyn Post, The American Legion, netted the auxiliary about $75, according to report made today. Mrs. A. S. Livengood, the president, was in charge. Participating in the program were Ray McClintock of Connellsville, Robert Hill, Ralph Sherrick, Betty Kate Stone, Richard Stauffer, Junior Stauffer, Jennie Becker, Mrs. E. M. S. Pyle, Eloise Hafer, Avis Slaughter, Elizabeth Copley, Gervice Yahner, Margaret Kritschgau and Mrs. C. E. Stone. Lunch was served in connection with the entertainment. Legion Hall, in which it was held, was decorated in the national colors.

Mrs. Susan Hoover Dies.

Mrs Susan Hoover, well known in Scottdale, died Wednesday evening at her home at New Kensington of pneumonia. She is survived by her husband and eight children. The children are Mrs. J. C. Helms, Mrs. George McKelvey and Mrs. Robert Ross, New Kensington; Mrs. Felix Moore, Natrona; Mrs. Robert Huston, Beaver Falls Walter Remaley, Scottdale; James Remaley, Tarentum; Harry Remaley, Dubois. She leaves also a brother, James Silvis, of Scottdale. The funeral was held Saturday at New Kensington.

Supervisors in Session.

Plans for spring work have been held up by the supervisors of East Huntingdon township pending the naming by the court of a successor to the late August Bentz, a member of the board, it was announced following a meeting here yesterday at which bills were ordered paid and some routine work disposed of. It was said the appointment will hardly be made before February.

Clothing Discussed.

"The Evolution of Clothes" was the theme of James B. Hurst, local merchant, at a luncheon of the Rotary Club yesterday at the Y. M. C. A.

Women Voters Meet.

There was a meeting of the League of Women Voters last evening at the Y. M. C. A. at which Miss Myrtle Herbert read a paper on "History of the Government" and another on "History of the Presidents." Mrs. E. C. Auld was in charge of the lesson for the evening. The meeting was cut short on account of the musicale by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Legion.

Dangerous Aversion.

"Do you remember the old-fashioned copy book with the line, 'Honesty is the best policy'?"

"Yes," replied Mr. Dustin Stax. "It was a mistake to make that line a copy book task. Some of the old-timers I have met in business evidently wrote it till they got sick and tired of it."

Income Tax Return Forms Will be Ready Tomorrow

The following statement is issued by collector of internal revenue for the 23rd district of Pennsylvania, of which Fayette county is a part:

"Form 1004A, revised and simplified, for filing individual returns of income for the calendar year 1921 of $5,000 and less will be available Wednesday, January 18, at the office of collector of internal revenue, Pittsburg, and the following branch offices: Erie, Johnstown, Uniontown, DuBois, and New Castle. A copy will be mailed to each taxpayer who last year filed a return, but failure to receive the form does not relieve a taxpayer of his obligation to file a return on time—on or before March 15, 1922. The form has been reduced from six to four pages, two of which are devoted to instructions which should be carefully read by the taxpayers before filing in the blanks. A study of these instructions will greatly lessen difficulties heretofore encountered in correctly making out the returns.

"On page 1, under the head of 'income' are spaces for reporting the following items; salaries, wages, commissions, etc.; income from partnerships, fiduciaries, etc.; rents and royalties; profits (or loss) from business or profession; profit (or loss) from sale of real estate; profit (or loss) from sale of stocks, bonds, etc., and other income. Beneath are spaces for entering deductions, such as interest and taxes paid during the year; losses by fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty or by theft, contributions, bad debts, etc.

"On page 2 are spaces for entering explanations of the various items; i. e., the total amount of income from business or profession, with description ('grocery,' 'retail clothing,' 'drug store,' 'laundry,' 'doctor,' 'lawyer,' 'farmer,' from rents, and royalties, sale of property, etc).

"Returns are required of every single person and every married person not living with husband and wife whose net income for 1921 was $1,000 or more, and of every married person, living with husband and wife whose net income was $2,000 or more. If the combined net income of husband, wife and dependent minor children equalled or exceeded $2,000 or if the combined gross income of husband and wife and dependent minor children equalled or exceeded $5,000, all such income must be reported on a joint return or in separate return of husband and wife. If single and the net income including that of dependent minors, if any, equalled or exceeded $1,000, or if the gross income equalled or exceeded $5,000, a return must be filed. A minor, however, having a net income of $1,000 or $2,000, according to marital status or a gross income of $5,000 regardless of the amount of net income, upon which tax is assessed is a new provision.

"Net income is gross income less certain deductions which are explained on the form.

"Under each of the above conditions, a return must be filed even though no tax is due. The exemptions are $1,000 for single persons and married persons not living with husband or wife, $2,500 for married persons living with husband or wife whose net income for 1921 was $5,000 or less and $2,000 for such persons whose net income was more than $5,000. The exemptions for dependent, 'a person under 18 years of age or a mentally or physically defective,' has been increased from $200 to $400.

"A head of a family—a person who actually supports in one household one or more persons closely related to him (or her) by blood, marriage or adoption, is granted the same exemptions allowed a married person.

"The normal tax rates are unchanged, four per cent on the first $4,000 of net income also a the exemptions and eight per cent on the remaining net income. The tax this year as last, may be paid in full at the time of filing the return, or in four equal installments, due on or before March 15, June 15, September 15 and December 15.

"Heavy penalties are provided by the new revenue act for failure to file a return and pay the tax on time.

"Announcement will be made through the press of the date of release of Forms 1041 for filing individual return of income of more than $5,000."

A CONNELLSVILLE MAN'S EXPERIENCE

Can you doubt the evidence of this Connellsville citizen?

You can verify Connellsville endorsement.

Read this:

J. H. Lenhart, carpenter, 412 Highland avenue, Connellsville, says. "My work has seemed to be very hard on my back and kidneys. At different times I have got a lameness in my back and a soreness across my hips and through my loins. It was very troublesome for me to get around. At the same time my kidneys would act irregularly and the secretions would become highly colored and unnatural. A spell like this was always relieved promptly by Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at Clarke's Drug Store. They quickly removed the backache and regulated my kidneys. I think Doan's are a mighty fine remedy for these ailments."

FAIR HAIR ON THE DECREASE

Scientific Reason Alleged Is That Blondes Are Less Resistant Than Their Darker Brothers.

Scientists tell us that blonde hair is dying out, the reason being that blondes, being less resistant, die sooner than brown-haired persons. The cities, too, show a smaller proportion of light-haired and light-eyed persons than the country. Variety of colors in the hair of a population is a sure sign of civilization and culture. This variety is never found in pure races, like Indians, Africans, negroes and the Asiatics. The Maltese and the Hebrews have the largest proportion of brown-haired people, and the Danes the smallest. But the Danes make up for it by having the largest percentage of blondes. When the hair comes down close on the forehead, forming a peak, that is a sign of a strong constitution and a long-lived ancestry. The man is also credited with having a short, sharp temper, great honesty of purpose, excellent observation, and perseverance. Stiff derby and opera hats are responsible for much of the baldness found among young men in large cities. The unyielding rims of these hats interfere with the circulation in those veins which return the blood from the scalp.

Purest Natural Light.

The scientists tell us that the firefly's light is the purest in nature; almost all other sources of illumination give forth a mixed form of energy that is only in part illumination, to the human eye, at least. But the firefly gives forth light and nothing else. An ordinary gas flame, for instance, contains but three per cent of light rays. Sunlight itself is only 35 per cent pure. It is no wonder, then, that many a child has discovered that when a firefly crawls over a book in the dark you can read the type behind them, providing he is accommodating, and you read rapidly. The illumination is said to come from a photogenic plate of fatty substance supplied with a profusion of fine tracheal branches, which carry a rich supply of oxygen to the fat cells and cause, a the insect's will, a rapid combustion. Probably it is fortunate for the firefly that this combustion does produce pure light, and not 45 per cent of heat waves. —Harper's Magazine

Decoyed.

"How did you happen to buy a motorcar?"

"It was this way. I was reading a story in a magazine."

"A motor romance, I suppose."

"No, but it was carried over into the advertising section and right then I discovered a make of car I couldn't live without."

Head Ached and Body Ached.

There are various symptoms of kidney trouble—rheumatic pains, backache, sore muscles, stiff joints, and "always tired" feeling. Mrs. Geo. Morgan, E. Fairfield, Vt., writes: "My head ached and my whole body ached so I could not sleep. Foley Kidney Pills gave me relief. They heal and strengthen weak, disordered kidneys and bladder and help them in their work of filtering the blood and casting out of the system the impurities that cause pain and disease. To Make Rich Red Blood

Revitalize your worn-out exhausted nerves and increase your strength and endurance

Take Organic Iron; not metallic iron which people usually take, but pure organic iron—Nuxated Iron—which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. One dose of Nuxated Iron is estimated to be approximately equivalent in organic iron content to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Nuxated Iron is partially predigested and ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood, while metallic iron is from just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron filings.

Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often counteract to enrich your blood. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain satisfactory results.

Beware of substitutes. Always insist on having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

"BILL" PRITTS, INHERITOR OF TRADITIONS.

It is the testimony of those who knew "Bill" Pritts most intimately that he was a man of most generous impulses, kindly disposition and intensely loyal to his friends. He never intentionally harmed any person and always adhered to the old-fashioned notion that to be a good neighbor was the duty of first importance in the relations of the people of a community.

The view he at one time held with respect to the manufacture of liquor was, in a very large sense, the same as that which prevailed among a very large part of the population which composed the forbears of himself and others who descended from the early settlers west of the Alleghenies. In their day, as well as in the community in which "Bill" Pritts was born and reared to manhood the growers of grain had a very limited market for their product or were so remote from markets that the crude transportation methods of the times made it impossible to dispose of their grain in that form. They therefore held that they had very proper right to change it into a marketable form by distilling it into liquor just as they had the right to card, spin and weave the fleeces from the backs of their sheep.

When the government imposed a tax on their liquor it was resisted as an invasion of their rights. This resistance assumed the form of revolution, not so much against the authority of the government as against the arrogance of the agents invested with the enforcement of the law. After the government made a display of its military power, and conferences between cooler heads on both sides had made the situation plainer, the revolutionists' acquiesced in the demands of the government, ceased their resistance to the collection of the tax on whisky and to this day the government has had no more loyal supporters than the descendants of those who aided in raising "Liberty Poles" and making life unpleasant for the revenue agents sent into this section to levy and collect tax on whisky 125 or more years ago.

In the life of "Bill" Pritts the early history of this section was in a sense repeated. He inherited the traditions of a long line of rugged ancestors who had wrested "The Wilderness" from the savages and made it to blossom as the rose, and who thought it not wrong to make grain into liquor when there were no markets in which to dispose of it in its original form. When he was convinced as the pioneers before him had been convinced, that their ideas in this regard were not in harmony with established law, he accepted the situation with as good grace as they had done and continued until a ripe old age to meet all the requirements of good citizenship.

It is but just and fair that in any estimate of the character of this much respected resident of the mountain section, where he was held in much the same affectionate regard as were the patriarchial fathers of the earlier days it should be remembered that he was no more influenced by environment and circumstances than they were.

THRIFT WEEK.

Beginning today a week known as Thrift Week is to be observed throughout the United States. There is no pre-arranged program for the observance is not to partake of a public character or to include a "drive" or other form of strenuous effort. Instead the attention of every person is to be invited to setting aside at least a small part of each of the ensuing seven days to giving serious thought to the very important matter of planning economy and the practice of thrift in their individual lives. Not as some people define the term to mean miserly hoarding and niggardly expenditure but by the exercise of judicious care in the use of money so that its full value may be received and some left to be put aside as a savings fund.

The profligacy of the war period developed a habit some people have found it difficult to break. Money came easy to many people and they spent it without thought that its plethora would cease. By stern necessity some have been obliged to practice the most rigid economy to make their now much reduced earnings meet expenses. But others even though suffering a reduction in income have not yet learned that their persistence in extravagant and unnecessary expenditures is one of the factors which is preventing a more complete adjustment of values and a return to [illegible] ... to make any provision for that period in their lives when the proverbial rainy day shall come.

While the deflations brought about since the war have increased the purchasing power of the dollar over that of the war period, it is still far short of 100 cents, as measured by the standard of six or eight years ago. The longer people refrain from practicing a wise economy in their expenditures, particularly for those things they could very comfortably get along without in like proportion will the period of readjustment be prolonged and the arrival of prosperity deferred.

Thrift, therefore, has not only a present and immediate value and advantage to those who practice it and to the community as a whole, but it is a form of insurance against the future when by the operation of the laws of nature earning capacity will become reduced. To provide such a safeguard is very properly a subject for serious study, which is the prime object of Thrift Week.

Poison Rum

Harrisburg Telegraph.

Poison rum occupies almost as prominent place in the day's news as poison gas did in the days of the war, and it is difficult to say which is the more deadly. The drinker who indulges in the stuff that is sold under the name of liquor these days is taking a grave chance and as the real "bottled in bond" contraband becomes scarcer as it is doing every day that chance becomes infinitely greater.

The synthetic booze sold by the bootleggers is manufactured by unscrupulous men who have no regard for the law of the land and being criminals to the extent of risking jail for a few dollars in violation of state and federal statutes, they may be depended upon to go a step further and market any kind of dope' for which they can get money.

Bootlegging is a bad business and bootleggers are a bad lot. They are in the trade for the same purpose as were the more unscrupulous of the old-time saloonkeepers who sold rot-gut' whisky—the last possible dollar and the devil take the victims.

There are reckless souls who risk life and limb in speeding motor cars there are others who test new parachute devices from the wings of flying airplanes and still others who climb skyscrappers, or go over Niagara Falls or dive from the top of the Brooklyn bridge. All expect the reward of notoriety with its consequent vaudeville engagements for large sums. And then there are the fools who drink bootleg rum. All the reward they can expect is to pose as central figures at a coroner's inquest.

THE AVERAGE MAN.

The papers overlooked him, for he never beat his wife
He never tried to rob a bank or take another's life
And he wasn't very brilliant and he didn't try for fame
So there was no real occasion for the press to print his name.

The papers overlooked him—he was never deep in debt
He never slipped away from town with all that he could get
He never made a million never wrote a modern play
So there wasn't much about him for the editors to say.

He paid his yearly taxes just the same as you and I
He went to work o'mornings with a twinkle in his eye
He kept a little garden and his children seemed to grow
Into just the sort of children that the world is glad to know.

His friends were never many but the few he had were true
For they had all discovered what the papers never knew
He was brave and clean and kindly—one of millions I suppose
Whose lives are ordinary from beginning to the close.

And the more I think about him it's the ordinary man
Who's the glory of the nation and the strength of every clan
So I pay this tribute to him—not the genius or the crook
But the honest normal average man the papers overlook.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage & Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.—Advertisement

SOLDIER BODY COMING

That of Frank Carey Expected in New York on Saturday.

The body of Private Frank Carey, World War hero, was expected to arrive in Brooklyn, N. Y., about January 14 and will be shipped to Uniontown and removed to the American Legion home there. Private Carey was killed in action October 28, 1918 while serving with the 310th Infantry on the Meuse river. He left with a large contingent from Republic.

Two sisters, Mrs. Nora Richardson of Franklin township, and Mrs. John McMarrough of Smock, and three brothers, William of Perksville, Patrick of Franklin township and Simon of Smock survive. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Carey, are dead.

Seek Friends in Hour of Need.

"In the hour of need we quickly seek our best friends," writes Chas. Schridd Ward de Wet, 957 73rd Ave., Oakland, Cal., "our little boy and girl had a severe dry, rasping cough without phelgm, a cough that chokes and flushes the face of the sufferers like unto convulsions. Foley's Honey and Tar was a wonderful emergency remedy." Cases like this give Foley's Honey and Tar its reputation as the best remedy for coughs and colds.—Advertisement

THE SOISSON.

"POVERTY OF RICHES"—A photo-play version of Leroy Scott's story, "The Mother," admirably acted by an all star cast, is the feature picture today and tomorrow. It is a simple tale of two families, life-long friends, and the joys and sorrows that their different attitude toward the facts of the life brings. One of the young husbands is ambitious for power beyond all thought of rearing a family. Although he and his wife love children, he is always afraid that he cannot give them every luxury that he missed in his youth. Their friends do not wait until they become wealthy in order to find their happiness. They find it in their youth in their love for each other and for their children. In "Poverty of Riches," the development of the two families is traced side by side, and the real joys of the less financially successful family is poignantly contrasted with the hollow satisfactions that follow upon the business success of their friends. It is noteworthy that in this picture the tragic note was not side-stepped to make a conventional happy ending; for, as in life, the time comes when the wealthy husband feels that he can afford to have children. But it is too late; and the irony of following the false God of gold instead of the true guide of love is brought home to him with overwhelming power. In the cast are Beatrice Joy, Ireno Rich, Louise Lovely, Richard Dix, John Bowers and half a dozen wonderful children.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"FROM THE GROUND UP."—One of the happiest and breeziest comedies in which Tom Moore has ever appeared, is the leading attraction today at this theatre. The story gives Mr. Moore every possible opportunity to exploit his various and unique talents. His smile is ever present, whether as a ditch digger or as the superintendent of an office building. He puts his horse over the hurdles like a professional jockey. And in the moments of pathos, there is a sincerity about Tom Moore's acting that grips the heart. The story tells of the rise of a lowly immigrant to a position of stability. As his fortunes rise, those of the girl he adores from afar, fall. How they finally are brought together makes a climatic ending to an entertaining picture. Irlene Chadwick is Mr. Moore's leading lady; and no man can be blamed for carrying her image about with him for years. Others in the cast are DeWitt C. Jennigs, Grace Pike, Hardee Kirkland and Darrell Foss. E. Mason Pepper directed. Tomorrow and Thursday Vivian Martin will be seen in "Pardon My French."

THE ORPHEUM.

"THE INSIDE OF THE CUP," the feature picture today, is a Paramount-Cosmopolitan production, and is an exceedingly praiseworthy picturization of Winston Churchill's famous novel of the same name. In the film version Kate Marcy, one of the principal characters, is a salesgirl in a metropolitan store. Although innocent of crime, she is accused of the theft of a handbag and discharged. She sinks into the depths and is later reclaimed and finds happiness in the love of the son of the man who had been the cause of her undoing. To make this scene perfect in every detail, Director Capellani arranged with the head of a great uptown department store in New York for the use of his basement after business hours. Great electric lights were installed and the entire company brought to the store where in the presence of a picked audience, the various scenes leading up to Kate Marcy's degradation was filmed. "The Inside of the Cup" is a powerful Paramount picture, said to be one of the best produced in many months. The roles are in competent hands, the leading man being William P. Carleton, and the leading woman, Edith Hallor. Others in the cast include David Torrence, Jack Bohn, Marguerite Clayton, Margaret Seddon, Albert Roccardi, Frank A. Lyon, Henry Morey and Irene Delroy.

How to Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

Has no equal for prompt results. Takes but a moment to prepare, and saves you about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FOR A CONSTIPATED CHILD

A small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will bring quick relief.

MOTHER, when one of the children is constipated are you going to give the first laxative within reach? It is dangerous to do so. Some have been known to rupture the intestines of little children. Don't be beguiled by the outside sugary appearance. Look into the formula. Calomel is seldom necessary; salts, minerals, coal tar, never!

Unlike these, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is admirable for children, as it is for grown people, too. Mothers have been giving it to children for 30 years. They know it does not gripe, and is free from narcotics. The formula is on every package, and you can see it is vegetable, just a combination of Egyptian Senna and other laxative herbs with pepsin. Use it yourself and you will find it is not necessary to take it every day, nor to increase the dose, and that it is pleasant to the taste. Bottles can be had at all drug stores, and the cost is only about a cent a dose. Have no hesitancy giving it to a baby in arms. It is absolutely safe.

Half-Ounce Bottle Free

Fear escape constipation, as even if you do not require a laxative at this moment let me send you a Half-ounce Trial Bottle of my Syrup Pepsin FREE OF CHARGE so that you will have it handy when needed. Simply send your name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 514 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Write me today.

Record Coal Production At Ronco Frick Plant

Producing 134,000 tons of coal during 25 days in December, Ronco mine of the H. C. Frick Coke Company has set a new production record for a single mine for any one month in the history of the Connellsville coke region. This production record, in the face of present industrial conditions in the country, is nothing less than remarkable. Ronco operations have been steady throughout the year and the record set during December will attract widespread attention in mining circles. This is an average of 5,600 tons of coal daily.

W. J. Culleton is superintendent of the Ronco mine and Joseph Gochring, mine foreman. There are approximately 500 men employed at the mine.

The entire output of the mine is shipped by river to the Clairton by-product plant of the United States Steel Corporation. It is understood that the production at the Ronco plant is to be increased to 150,000 tons of coal monthly.

STOMACH MISERY, GAS, INDIGESTION, TAKE "DIAPEPSIN"

Take "Pape's Diapepsin" now! In five minutes your stomach feels fine. Don't bother what upset your stomach or which portion of the food did the damage. If your stomach is sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; you belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only 60 cents for a large case at drug stores.—Advertisement.

Alverton.

ALVERTON, Jan. 17.—From the line showing the East Huntingdon High School made Friday evening it is evident that Coach A. D. Morgan-than will develop a team that will be able to compete with any high school in the county. The support given the boys in Friday's game was fine, and it is hoped that when the locals get going that larger crowds will turn out to see them play.

The team-work was much improved over that shown in the Mount Pleasant game. The team is working hard in order to make a good showing against Connellsville on January 25, when they play at Connellsville.

Farmer's Sickly Little Girl Was Quickly Improved by Nerv-Worth

Father Says Stomach Trouble Relieved—Gained Weight.

"My little nine-year-old daughter had been troubled with stomach and bowel trouble for three years," said Miles J. Carter, Piqua, Ohio, and he continues: "We had tried a number of remedies without finding one that would help her, and we had given up hope of finding any relief for her, when we heard of Nerv-Worth. She has taken two bottles now, and is getting better and better since the first day she started to take Nerv-Worth. She has gained in weight and is more cheerful." The above statement is one of great weight to parents who have a child in a run-down condition, or suffering from ill health. Nerv-Worth is the ideal tonic for young or old. Its pleasant taste and beneficial effects make it exceptionally good for children. Remember Nerv-Worth is sold on a money-back basis, and if you are not satisfied with your first bottle, your druggist is authorized to refund your money.

"Yes, I told you I'd land that Amsterdam Roof show of his, didn't I?"

"Broadway for sure, Lee! Say you'll be giving Belasco lessons next"

He ran a finger along the top of his tall collar.

"I'm going to put on the biggest girl show that town ever seen."

"Gee, but—but I'm glad for you Lee"

He glanced at her sidewise.

"What you goin' to do, sister—stick around this dump?"

"I—I dunno"

"Fine place for a murder or a deaf and dumb school"

"It—it ain't so bad, Lee, when you get used to it, the neighbors and friends they——"

"Ben?"

"You know, Al's friend"

"The guy that owns the town?"

"Yeh, he owns this cottage and everything else, Lee We—we don't even pay rent for it. He's the fellow that gave us the chair you're sitting on and the lamp you're seeing with There never was a friend like him Lee Where would the money have come from all the months after the operations and all if—if he hadn't been sent to help us just like out of heaven Givin' and givin' us so we wouldn't know it. Helpin us so we couldn't see it, keeping up Al's nerve, helpin' him to——"

"Ben Collings?"

"Yeh Gee don't I wish you could meet him, Lee. After the aldermen's meeting tonight he'll be stopping in I just wish you could see h i for yourself, Lee, honest I do You never met a fellow like him, honest you never did"

He regarded her through a film of abstraction as if her words only half filtered to him His glance was for her white throat where it rose above the black and the limber easy line of her silhouette

"Honest, Lo you're better looking Kind of filled out and toned down a bit. Country air eh? Some little looker!"

"Aw Lee"

He shifted his cold cigar

"Guess you'll be pulling up stakes around here pretty soon eh?"

"I—why, I dunno Lee"

"There ain't many girl shows being booked for summer Me and Mack's got the first grab at 'em, too"

"The Amsterdam Roof is sure the swellest on Broadway, Lee"

"You think I forgot my promi to you kiddo, now—now that you're out in the swim again don't you? You think I've forgot?"

"What?"

"You think I forgot that I promised you last fall that there's a forty dollar job waiting for you in that show"

She grasped the arms of her chair.

"Oh Lee, I——"

"You on?"

"I—oh—I—I gotta stick around here for awhile Lee Since everything happened, it—it just seems like I can't think I try to think and think and it's just like my brain hurts"

"All you got to do is to say the word kiddo and you can tag on the 'leven seven tonight with the show and transportation back to New York thrown in"

"Lee!"

"That's the kind of a sport I am You don't wanna hang around here livin off th's guy, do you, or maybe——"

"Lee!"

"The house is his, ain't it? You said so yourself It's the easiest g taway you can make kiddo 'leven-seven tonight."

"No no Lee I—I can't."

He made a grandiose bow

"Excuse me! Excuse me and no harm meant Far be it from me to interfere between any lady and her gentlemen friends Excuse me kiddo, and no harm meant"

She was on her feet and quivering

"You! You! Ain't you ashamed you? A—a boy like Ben You and your rotten crowd with your rotten thoughts Gawd, I dare you to stop in and see for yourself when he stops in here for a minute tonight that there's something besides rottenness in this world, that there are men can live in this world without wallowing in the mud. You—whatta you and your gang know about boys like Ben? You and your kind don't know!"

"It's soft for you, kiddo. I ain't blaming you"

"You and your gang! Gee if you was invited to a saint's supper you'd watch your overcoat. Whatta you all know about a man who can look at the sun without squinting, you and your gang?"

He rose expostulating

"Gee, ain't you a little spitfire! Getting me wrong like that. I never said nothing against him Sure he's a real guy. I seen him once with Al a great big fellow with a mouth full of teeth and a smile as catching as measles Say if this way of doing suits you, kiddo Gawd knows it ain't my rest cure you're taking Sure I remember the fellow and his five-inch smile"

"Smile! Gee right after the funeral ysis set in and I was start raving crazy with the scare, it was that smile steered and——"

"Sure, sure. Say all of this ain't none of my butt in

His incertitude might have been a cabal of opinion inveighed against her A wall of fog rose up s oon dimming her eyes.

"I—honest, you got me so upset—so upset I—I just don't know what to do—I dunno You could make me look crooked—you and your—your crooked way of thinkin'

"I ain't butting in no more kiddo All I done was to throw out a friendly hint, but the first time I opened my mouth I got my foot in it"

"No, no Lee I didn't mean nothing"

He would not be placated His lips quirking curiously upward

"Let a fellow like me try to do a girl a turn and watch him get stung every time"

She held out an arm faintly remonstrative

"But, Lee you—you got me so upset It—it all come so sudden like Sure I gotta get out and hustle sure I only I—I can't catch the 'leven seven no more tonight Lee Sure you're right I—I can't stay livin off him like this Sure I gotta hustle but I— not so soon! Not so all—of—a—suddin

He was ... ed, but sullen

Say, you ain't doing me no favor But your luggage is all ... It? Didn't you say something—nothing have ain't yours?

"Y yes"

"Then what's hurting?"

"I—I'm all out of step too Lee"

He turned to her reflectively

"But you ain't lost your looks kiddo I got to hand it to you there You ain't lost your look"

"I—couldn't go without telling him —Ben"

"Tell him you're on your job again ... a self-respecting girl and he'll think more of you

"But sometimes it's nearly twelve when he passes from the Monday night meetings and ... at 'leven seven

"Write him Gee a f lov don't need a brick ... house to tell him But don't let no butt in it——

"I'm all out of step Lee"

GUNS HIDDEN IN GERMANY

Howitzer Barrels Discovered by Officers of Disarmament Commission.

The allied disarmament commission in Saxony discovered 848 howitzer barrels ready to be mounted according to a telegram received in Paris from Berlin A few days before 180 barrels of the same dimensions (38 millimeters had been found in another locality, making in all nearly 600 heavy guns almost ready to be put in the field by the German army authorities.

With these guns it is held they could efficiently arm more than thirty divisions The discovery was made it is said when officers inspecting a metal works at Heidenau became suspicious because the number of men employed seemed out of proportion to the work done They made investigation and found a wall at the end of a subterranean passage

When they asked the director of the factory what was behind the wall he replied that there was absolutely nothing The officers returned three days later and on examining the wall found that it had a curious look of newness although it had been splashed over with dirt and some spider webs had been carefully draped around corners The wall was torn down and the howitzer tubes found.

LOW WAISTLINE EVENING GOWNS

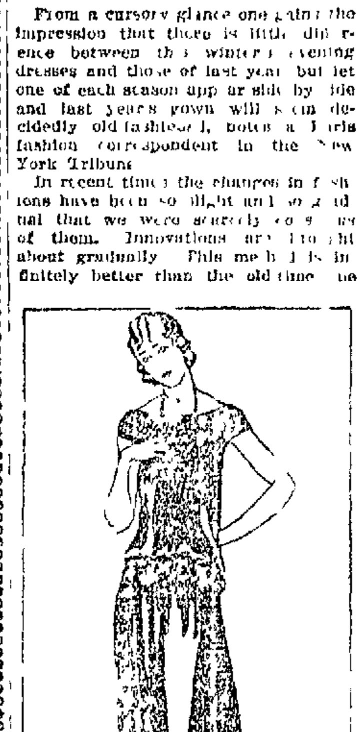

Paris Fashion Writer Cites Noticeable Changes in the Newest Apparel.

MODELS LONG AND STRAIGHT

Slender Lines Prevail in Favorite Dresses From France—The Decolletage Becomes More Modest This Season.

From a cursory glance one gains the impression that there is little difference between this winter's evening dresses and those of last year but let one of each season appear side by side and last year's gown will seem decidedly old fashioned, notes a Paris fashion correspondent in the New York Tribune

In recent times the changes in fashions have been so slight and so gradual that we were scarcely conscious of them. Innovations are brought about gradually This method is infinitely better than the old time one of causing an upheaval which meant forcing styles so startling that none but the extremist adopted them

We have been talking of long lines in dress for so long a time that the subject seems a very old one But the long bened lines we talked and wrote about two years ago are short in comparison with those of today In no winter no dressmaker placed the waist line as low down on the hips as it is now Then there is the skirt the hem of which almost touches the ground doing its part in producing a longer and slimmer effect These skirts are better suited to evening dress than to any other costumes.

Loose Models for Uncorrected Figure

French gowns are of the long, straight sort This is the type of evening dress most in use While there are many models with tight bodices and full skirts they are in the minority The appeal of the picturesque which the latter possess is not strong enough to compete successfully with its long graceful skirt and its simple bodice hanging loosely from the shoulders and blousing around the hips

One reason why the evening dress with tight fitting bodice and full skirt is not eagerly accepted is because it is not suited to the uncorrected figure The loose, and in some cases rather untidy appearing dress, is in accord with present day fashions keeping pace as it does with progress and with the emancipation of women in dress as in other lines No woman wants to return to Civil war times in her dress any more than she wants to revert to any phase of life peculiar to those days

If we realized how closely dress is and always has been connected with history we would be more successful with it and would desist from all attempts to match it it to an other than the natural channels

Decolletage Becomes More Modest.

Evening gowns except for the most formal occasions are less decollete this year Some have draped skirts the foundation skirt being about seven inches from the floor while the various ways of hanging panels points and drapery from the low waist line to several inches below the skirt, give a most fascinating line

In evening dresses Lenny features flowing side panels which are a continuation of the sleeve She introduces an ingenious effect by arranging the panel on one side of the dress so that it falls from the front of the sleeve and that on the other from the back She further accentuates this reverse treatment by making the panels of a contrasting material Two wedding dresses from this maker one in white satin and another in silver lace show interesting and novel trains which are a continuation of panels

Fabrics are sumptuous and colors are brilliant An abundance of sheer silver tissue is used for scarfs and trains as well as tissues of gold and silver shot with beautiful colors, notably red and violet hues

Metal brocades soft velvets and satins, and beautifully patterned silks are used profusely Several models exploit lace in various ways Drecoll makes beautiful lace dresses of a very stately type on the Italian Renaissance line Especially lovely are those combining silver and black

Many dressmakers of importance still favor black but the pendulum is swinging rapidly toward bright color A number of white crepe dresses are veiled with black lace Frequently a black and white dress or the all black or all white costume, has a girdle of bright hued flowers placed about the hips

In evening toilettes the dress with wrap to match is important. Velvet gowns in high colors have matching coats or capes Japanese effects are introduced in several of the evening dresses with accompanying wraps, many of them worked out in black and gold brocade.

Novelties of this season are the evening dresses of duvetyn in high colors These should prove successful for the half ceremonious restaurant or informal dinner dress.

Scarves of Sheer Metal Cloth.

A charming example of the use of sheer metal tissue with a bright color is a Madeleine et Madeleine model, developed in sapphire blue and silver brocade. The long scarf attached to the shoulders and again to the wrists by a novelty bracelet is of a very sheer silver cloth

Brick red satin and silver are strikingly combined in a Charlotte model The satin is interwoven with silver threads An underskirt of silver lace hangs several inches longer than the dress A band of satin embroidered in silver encircles the hips and extends down the front. A ragged appearance is given to the bottom by the silver petticoat hanging below the skirt, the embroidered band longer than the petticoat and panels at either side trailing on the floor.

Ornamented With Lace and Flowers

Mme Jenny created a decided sensation by her frocks in fuchsia coloring shading from pinkish mauve to the deepest fuchsia blue These are of silk, trimmed with metal lace and flowers each one having a matching wrap of velvet with a big ruche collar made of flowers They are charming from the color standpoint.

A few brown and beige tones make their appearance in the evening Martial et Armand have a model called Alcibiade developed in beige satin with an apron tunic and scarf sleeves of lace in matching shade The tunic is mounted in a novel way to a girdle of brown velvet laced low on the hips and is arranged so that the dress may be worn without the apron

An interesting model from Jean Patou called Conchita, is developed in a novelty printed silk. At the sides are long panels of ivory lace. Rows of ivory insertion trim the lower half of the skirt At each side heading the lace panels is a huge artificial rose of red silk

Picturesque Shoe of Colonial Days.

If one is of the picturesque type and has a taste for the picturesque in dress it is difficult to reckon shoe buckles among the non-essentials for they are essential to the completion of the most picturesque shoe that ever has been worn The Colonial shoe with its huge buckle has returned. Extremely effective are the large velvet tongues in either brown or black that serve as a support for buckles that may be either square or oval Frequently brown velvet tongues are used on black shoes

Hatpins have been absent from fashions for so long a time that it is pleasing to see pin cushions on dressing tables of fashionably dressed women bristling with pins of jade, jet and glistening stones They may have long dangling pendants or be in ring or oval form to match earrings

Jewelers have had their eyes on the length of sleeves for the last year and a half to ascertain whether or not the bracelet will continue its prosperous way Apparently the advent of the long sleeves has not had the effect on the use of bracelets that was expected, for although many long sleeves are worn the vogue for the bracelet is undiminished Among the recent models are bands of pearls clasped with snakes heads in platinum studded with diamonds.

Ray and Donnelly Both Confident as Hour for Their Bout Approaches

Premier Lightweights to Clash At Slavish Hall Tomorrow.

NEW LEAGUE IS FORMED

Johnny Ray, Pittsburg's premier lightweight, sends word to Duke Barry, matchmaker of the Fayette Athletic Club, that he has rounded into the best condition of his career for his 10-round bout with Johnny Donnelly, the Uniontown flash, which takes place tomorrow night at Slavish Hall. That the Smoky City Johnny is not holding the Uniontown Johnny cheaply, can be judged by the fact that "Hutch" has trained faithfully for this encounter.

When Donnelly recently met Billy Carter before the local club, Ray was a very much interested spectator, never having seen Donnelly in action but he then and there stated he was surprised at the showing made. After that bout, when talking over a bout between Donnelly and Ray to the former, Duke Barry remarked that he (Donnelly) apparently did not show all he had, to which Donnelly replied, "Why should I, when Ray was watching my every move?" This would indicate the countyseater has never shown his full ability in this section.

The tickets are being disposed of at a rapid rate, which means that one of the biggest crowds ever witnessing a boxing match here will be on hand to see these two sterling boxers in action.

Power House And Office Are Victors

The Connellsville Office defeated the Car Barns in the West Penn League at the Temple alleys last night, taking three straight games. The total pins rolled by the winners was 1,585 as compared with 1,424 for the Barns.

In the second game the Power House walloped the Store Room, also taking three straight games by comfortable margins. The total pins rolled were 1,542 to 1,326.

HE DARKENED HIS GRAY HAIR

Tells How He Did It.

Mr. J. A. McCrea, a well-known resident of California, who was called daddy and grandpa on account of his white hair, and who darkened it with a home-made mixture, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add one ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine.

"These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."—Advertisement

Soldier League Will Get Under Way Next Wee

The 110th Infantry League will be under way next week. The schedule for that week has been submitted and the teams will receive notice as to where they are to play each week thereafter. The Howitzer Company of Connellsville is in Section 2 of the league together with Company I, Company E, Service Company, Company L and Third Battalion Headquarters Company.

The first game to be played in Section 2 will be on Tuesday, January 24, when the Third Battalion Headquarters five will play Co. L. The Connellsville team will go into action on Thursday, January 26, when the Howitzer Company and Service Company, the latter of Scottdale, will play. At the same time the Somerset squad, Company C, will go to Mount Pleasant where Company I will play.

Casey Club to Play Legion of Masontown He

The Casey Club plays at home tonight, the Masontown Legion being the visitors. The contest will be in the parochial school hall at 8 o'clock.

The Caseys seem to have stepped into their stride and should soon be showing the other quintets of this section something about the floor game.

The St. Vincent Club basketball team of Leisenring, which defeated Trotter, Casey Reserves and Uniontown Panthers is desirous of arranging games with the Capstan Glass team or any quintet in the city league. Address Thomas Kenney, Leisenring, Pa., or call Leisenring postoffice, Tri-State phone.

* * * *

It would seem that Connellsville is getting the real basketball craze again. There are almost a score of teams in this city and all seem to be existing on the attendance. It is a fact that some of the best games spectators could desire to see are played every week and lovers of the sport may get a full evening's entertainment practically wherever they go.

* * * *

If Connellsville's high school team wins at North Braddock tonight it will mean a big boost in the standings of the team in the W. P. I. A. League. The locals have won seven out of 10 games played this season. At present the Cokers are right behind Braddock and North Braddock, which outfits are tied for first place.

* * * *

South Side defeated the North End team in a close game at the Baltimore & Ohio Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon by a score of 13-12. The North Enders were able to keep in the running by making a number of the fouls called. The Shamrocks defeated the West Side, 34-9.

* * * *

The Lennox Basketball Club of this city was defeated the second time by the Youngwood tossers Saturday evening at the Y. M. C. A. by the score of 37-21. The Lennox Club led until the last few minutes when Youngwood forged ahead.

PUTTING SPEED BEHIND BALL

Records Show It Is Not Possible to Throw a Baseball Twice as Far as Football.

It is not possible to throw a baseball twice as far as a football. Sheldon Lejeune threw a baseball and fell 94 inches. That is the record throw of all time. Mueller, the University of California end, threw a football 58 yards, which is 249 feet. Workman, of Ohio State, Mehrdel, of Notre Dame, and Snively, of Princeton, find it easy to throw a football more than 60 yards.

FRESHMEN FAVOR BASEBALL

Diamond Sport Most Popular With University of Pennsylvania Students—Tennis Next.

Baseball is the most popular sport with university of Pennsylvania freshmen. Dr. R. Tait Mackenzie, head of the department of physical education, said in making public an analysis of questionnaires filled out by the first year men as a part of their physical examination. Tennis takes second place and football third.

Out of 1,000 examinations Doctor MacKenzie said 397 favored baseball, 310 tennis, and 293 football.

Knot-Hole Gang Has 62,000 at Ball Games

The Knot-Hole gang, which was developed five years ago as a child welfare movement by the St. Louis Cardinals, had 62,000 members in attendance at games of the Cardinals last season, Samuel Breadon, president of the club announced. Boys under sixteen years old are admitted free to week-day games under the plan.

FAVOR CHANGE IN SCHEDULE

Princeton and Yale Not Satisfied With Arrangement With Harvard—Want Rotation.

Princeton and Yale favor a change in the football schedule with Harvard. The present schedule, which has been in vogue for seven years, brings Harvard and Princeton together first, then Princeton and Yale, and finally Yale and Harvard. This gives Harvard a two weeks' rest between games, while Yale and Princeton play on successive Saturdays. Princeton and Yale contend there should be a rotation of the schedule each year.

January Clearance Sale

As regular as taxes (but how much more welcome) every January brings this opportunity for substantial savings in practically every department of this store.

This year the annual even begins Wednesday, Jan. 18th, and presents a series of most unusual values. It's impossible, of course, to list them all but you may rest assured that a half hour spent shopping here this week will pay most substantial dividends.

Only once or twice a year does merchandise of such high quality as ours reach such low price levels. Add to this the fact that Gold Bond Stamps add a further 4% to your January savings—and we know that you'll not need further urging to be on hand early while the Sale lots are still intact.

Wednesday morning at 8.30 is the Zero Hour for thrifty shoppers. Be early at the door.
